

An Event Series in Commemoration of the 100th Anniversary of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's Passing

To mark the 100th anniversary of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's passing, a special event series was organized to honour him. The series began with an exhibition organized together with the Library, titled "Global Newspaper Coverage of Sun Yat-sen's Death in 1925", held at the L3, Au Shue Hung Memorial from 27 February to 31 March 2025. The display showcased international newspaper reports and media reactions to Sun's death, offering valuable insight into how global news coverage helped shape his image and legacy in the years that followed.
